ABOUT THE SPEAKERS

Designing the landscape demands a deep understanding of nature and a generous concept of time. The firm Reed Hilderbrand is unsurpassed in its sensitivity to the land, peoples' activities, and the rich patterns that tie link them. Their projects include Harvard's Arnold Arboretum; Boston's Christian Science Plaza; the grounds of the Phoenix Museum of Art; the Clark Institute master plan; and the landscape renovation to the Philip Johnson designed home on Strait Lane here in Dallas.

ABOUT DALLAS ARCHITECTURE FORUM

The Dallas Architecture Forum provides a continuing and challenging public discourse on architecture and urban design in - and for - the Dallas area. The Forum offers presentations of architecture through public lectures by designers, critics, and historians; through topical discussions; and through occasional study tours to buildings and cities locally and throughout the world. The Dallas Architecture Forum serves as an inclusive arena where people interested in and concerned with the built environment, non-professionals and professionals alike, may interact intellectually and socially.
